Candy or Medicine? -- Look-A-Like Drugs

Because young children are unable to read, they can often mistake medicines for their favorite candy. Many medicines and candies look identical. To reduce the risk of accidental poisonings, keep medicines out of the reach of children in a high, locked cabinet, and always keep medicines in their original container.

In the event of an accidental poisoning

CALL CAROLINAS POISON CENTER IMMEDIATELY: 1-800-222-1222